

Clinton E. Stockwell, Ph.D.

Curriculum Vitae

Winter 2016

Adjunct Faculty and Independent Scholar/ Researcher
4229 N Monticello
Chicago, Illinois 60618

Email: clintonstockwell@gmail.com
; clinton@scupe.com; clinton.stockwell@nl.edu

Education

Undergraduate and Graduate Studies

- Ph.D. 1992. Doctor of Philosophy. American Urban History. University of Illinois at Chicago. Dissertation. “A Better Class of People? Protestants in the Shaping of Early Chicago, 1833-1873.”
- Ph.D. 1980. Doctor of Philosophy. Systematic Theology. New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary. Dissertation: “The Ecclesiology of Emil Brunner.” (Th.D. was converted to Ph.D. in 2004).
- D.Min. 1986. Doctor of Ministry. Church and Society. Chicago Theological Seminary. Thesis. “The Consulting Program Of ‘Discovery: Steps Toward Renewal for Urban Churches.’”
- M.U.P.P. 2002. Master of Urban Planning and Policy. University of Illinois at Chicago. Masters Project: “Barriers and Bridges to Community Incorporation for Immigrants and Refugees in Uptown Chicago.”
- M.L.A. 2002. Master of Liberal Arts. University of Chicago. Thesis: “Cannibals All? Discourse on Michel de Montaigne’s ‘On the Cannibals.’”
- M.W.S. 2013. Master of World View Studies, Institute of Christian Studies, Toronto, Canada. Focus was on Biblical, theological and philosophical foundations for a Christian worldview.
- M.A. 1983. Master of Arts. European Intellectual History. University of Illinois at Chicago.
- M.Div. 1974. Master of Divinity. New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary.
- B.A. 1970. Bachelor of Arts. Sociology/ Philosophy. Louisiana College.

Post Graduate Studies

- Graduate Study. The Graham School of General Studies, University of Chicago (2002 to Summer, 2010).
- Graduate Study: Urban Ministry. Seminary Consortium for Urban Pastoral Education (SCUPE, 1981-82).
- Graduate Study, Departments of History and Urban and Regional Planning, University of New Orleans (1974-1980).

Teaching and Employment History

Winter 2015 to Present: Adjunct Faculty: Institute of Christian Studies, Toronto Canada.

Courses Taught:

- “Wisdom and Schooling” (Winter 2016)
- “They Looked for a City: Images of the City from Ancient Biblical Times to the Global Era.” (Fall 2015)
- “Leadership: Vision and Mission.” (Winter 2015).

Fall 2014. Adjunct Faculty, SCUPE. Course: “Public Issues in the City.”

2010 - to Present. Adjunct Professor, National Louis University. Public Policy and Social Science Departments.

Courses Taught:

- “Community Development” (Summer 2010)
- “Social Inequality” (Spring 2011)
- “Education Policy (Fall 2011) (Fall 2014).
- “Comparative Global Cultures (Fall 2011).
- “Race and Ethnicity,” (Spring 2012).
- “Public Policy Seminar (Winter 2012; Summer 2012)
- “Foundations for Public Policy (Spring 2012)
- “Urban Policy Development” (Spring 2012) (Spring 2014).
- “Culture of Chicago” (Each Academic Term (2014-2015).
- “Introduction to American Government and Politics” (Winter 2015).
- “Introduction to Sociology,” (Spring 2015)
- “The Metropolitan Community,” (Summer 2015).

1992- 2014: Faculty and (from 1999) Executive Director (Emeritus): Chicago Semester. The Chicago

Semester is an internship program for fifteen private liberal arts colleges, which including six colleges from the Reformed tradition including Calvin, Hope, Dordt, Northwestern, Central and Trinity Christian Colleges. Participating colleges include Aquinas, Briar Cliff, Cornerstone, Elmhurst, Luther and Spring Arbor colleges. I perform all administrative functions including preparation of a budget and oversight of 20 full time and part time staff persons.

Seminar Leader: “The Metropolitan Seminar,” which introduces students to the city in all facets, and I developed the Center’s Library and Resource Center; and occasional faculty seminars for staff and faculty of sponsoring colleges.

2009 – (Fall Semesters) 2010-2013 Adjunct Professor, Loyola University of Chicago. Course Instructor:
“Social Context.”

2009 - Fall, 2015. Adjunct Professor, SCUPE: Seminary Consortium for Urban Pastoral Education.
Course Instructor:

- “Public Issues in Urban Ministry” (Fall 2014)
- “Eco Justice, Building a More Sustainable City” (Fall 2010- 2013)
- “The Church and Globalization” (Winter 2009).

2000-2008: ADJUNCT FACULTY, “Urban Policy and Community Planning,” for Master of Arts in Community Development program, North Park University.

1992-1999: FACULTY ASSOCIATE and Practicum Group Supervisor, Chicago Metropolitan Center (now known as Chicago Semester). Taught The Metropolitan Seminar, and was a Practicum Group Leader, supervising 16-24 students each semester. Director of CMC Library and Resource Center and Coordinator of CMC’s Summer Faculty Institute.

1988-1992 : DIRECTOR of Chicago Center for Public Ministry, An internship program in urban ministry and public policy for seminarians and graduate students. CCPM was sponsored by the Community Renewal Society and four graduate theological schools, including McCormick, Meadville-Lombard, Lutheran and Chicago Theological Seminaries. As Director, I was responsible for recruiting faculty, recruiting and placing students, developing brochures and public relations materials, and developing programming for the Center. As Director, I also had the responsibility of overseeing the budget while reporting to a Steering Committee comprised of the Executive Director of the Community Renewal Society, the Presidents and Academic Deans of the sponsoring theological schools. I taught in several courses, including

- “Public Ministry in the City” (summer public justice internship program),
- “Community Organizing”
- “The Church and Labor”
- “Introduction to Public Ministries”
- “Health Care Ministry in the City”
- “Urban Ministry of the Local Church”

1986-1990: TEACHING ASSISTANT. History. University of Illinois at Chicago. While finishing my Ph.D. thesis, I taught the following courses, all self-contained 1986-1990:

- “American Urban History: Colonial Times to Progressive Era.”
- “American Urban History: The Progressive Era to the Present.”
- “Doers and Thinkers: An Introduction to American Intellectual History.”
- “Reform in American History: Antebellum, Progressive and Civil Rights Eras.”

- “Revivalism and Social Reform: Religion in American History.”
- “Liberated Jesus and Bourgeois Paul: The New Testament in its Historical, Social, and Political Context.”

1984-1988: RESEARCH DIRECTOR (1984) AND DIRECTOR (1986) of the Institute on the Church in Urban Industrial Society. Was a national training and information program on urban industrial mission, sponsored by six national denominations, including the Presbyterians, UCC, Methodist, American Baptists, Unitarians, and Episcopalians.

- As Director, I was responsible to develop programming within the constraints of a budget; produce the necessary promotional materials for events and publications that came forth from the organizations; called meetings and did Executive Report summaries for the Executive Board which included denominational executives and urban/social ministry project officers for 6 mainline Protestant denominations.
- As Chief Program Officer, I developed workshops for church leaders in the following three areas: Community Economic Development, Church-Based Community Organizing, and Urban Ministry. Partnerships with organizations such as the Community Workshop for Economic Development and the Organize Training Institute of Oakland, Ca. resulted in successful summer seminars .
- I Compiled workbooks and bibliographies, among them Fighting Against Hunger, Homelessness and Joblessness; Congregations and Community Organizing; and The Struggle for Peace, Justice and Sanctuary, co-edited with Dick Simpson, Political Science, University of Illinois at Chicago. Did City Profiles on Chicago, St. Louis, Atlanta, Richmond, noting political, social, and economic issues facing those cities as documents for denominational strategic planning process.

1981-1988: STAFF with SCUPE, Seminary Consortium for Urban Pastoral Education. I initiated and developed the SCUPE Library and Resource Center, published bibliographies and resource materials for urban ministry practitioners, churches and publications, and taught in two classes;

- “A Biblical Approach to Urban Culture” (First Corinthians); and
- “A History of Urban Christianity.”

1977-1981- STAFF and DIRECTOR of the Urban Training Institute, New Orleans, La. The UTI was a program of the Trinity Christian Community, a Presbyterian-sponsored urban mission project in New Orleans. I also directed another ministry of TCC, Annunciation House, a men’s rehab house for ex-offenders, homeless and youth drifters.

